Namex International Journal of Management Research is a Bi-Annual Journal. The core aim is to inculcate the management faculty, corporate leaders and research scholars to engage in scholarly research work to trace new insights and findings about the dynamic changes in the economy in different dimensions and to disseminate the knowledge across different sections of the economy on a continuous basis. The painstaking efforts of the authors may be from any of the core functional areas of Management, theories, concepts, book review, doctoral thesis, research papers, working papers, articles, blog reviews, and critiques.

Authors are kindly informed to keenly observe the follow the processes listed below while submitting the papers for publication.

- NIJMR adopts double blind peer review process
- Manuscripts to NIJMR has not have been published previously and also will not be submitted elsewhere for the purpose of publication.
- The manuscripts must be original in all aspects and it must be attached with an abstract not exceeding 250 words. The entire manuscript must not exceed more than 5000 words.
- Manuscript must be typed in A4 Paper, in 12 Points Times New Roman with a single line space with appropriate margins at all sides of the paper.
- The manuscripts must be submitted in the electronic mode only will be submitted. The cover must contain the Author’s Name, Designation, Institute Affiliation, Address for Communication, Contact Number both Landline and Mobile, Fax, and E-mail address.
- References properly arranged in alphabetic order and must be the one cited in the text of the manuscript.
- Tables, Figures and Charts must be placed in the appropriate places of the text for quick references and must be indicated with the sources at the bottom of the table and figures.
- The Journal being a double blind peer review journal, authors should not place their names and identity in any part of the manuscript.
- The authors will receive a free copy of the journal once if their paper is published in the journal.
- The Editorial Boards reserves the right to publish and not to publish on the grounds of quality, relevance and the weightage given by the peer review panel members.
- The copy rights of the manuscripts published lies with the publisher of the Journal.

Address for Communication

Dr. R. Rajan
Editor – in – Chief,
Namex International Journal of Management Research
New No 41 R K K Nagar
Coimbatore 641033
Email: editorinchief@namexijmr.com
Web: www.namexijmr.com